
Foundation courses

Would you like to pursue your dream and study at university? Get ready for the entrance exam with our wide range of foundation courses. They'll help you gain the knowledge and skills you need, but also understand what to expect from university studies and which study programme would suit you best.

Rich selection of courses: We offer foundation courses for a variety of disciplines and study programmes, so you can choose the one that best suits your interests and goals.

Qualified instructors: All courses are led by university professors who have in-depth knowledge in the areas they teach. Their expertise guarantees quality guidance throughout the entire preparation process.

Flexibility of study: We offer both full-time and distance learning courses. Face-to-face sessions allow you to get personal interaction with instructors and classmates, while distance learning offers you the flexibility of studying from the comfort of your own home. No matter which option you choose, our goal is to ensure that you can take full advantage of the potential of our foundation courses and prepare yourself for successful entry to university world.
