
Our activities

The Centre for Lifelong Learning supports learning across generations. It offers various educational programmes and events for academic and non-academic staff of the university or specialised courses for those interested in a career in EU institutions. It also organises projects such as the Junior University and the international scientific competition FameLab.